Dear Sir or Madam

It's the shortest month of the year, but nevertheless we have a lot of news to share with you! Just last week we welcomed the 5,000th user to our platform, and two days ago our partner the European Actuarial Academy (EAA) started its second "EAA Week", presenting one video each day of the week. Also, stay tuned for the latest webcast from RGA, our Sponsoring Partner, and for new content from the Global Conference of Actuaries in India!

5,000 registered users now on actuvview!

The actuvview community keeps on growing: Since our newly formed partnership with the Actuarial Association of Europe (AAE) was finalized in December last year, more than 15 European national associations have already given their members access to actuvview.

Within a few weeks the number of users quickly started to climb, reaching 5,000 only last week and 5,464 until today.

Latest webcast from actuvview partner RGA

RGA, one of the world's largest life and health reinsurers and actuvview's platform sponsor, regularly publishes webcasts on current topics on actuvview.

Now online: "Strategic Uses of Reinsurance"

*Presented by Erik Pronovost,
Associate Actuary, Structuring,
Global Financial Solutions, RGA*

In this video, RGA's Erik Pronovost discusses the challenges that life and health insurance insurers are facing, and opportunities to use reinsurance to lower risk and improve financial performance. He describes several scenarios in which reinsurance may be beneficial, such as when insurers need to stabilize income, reduce redundancy, or get support in entering and exiting different markets.

Watch the second EAA-Week now

The European Actuarial Academy (EAA) provides continuing education for (certified) actuaries and consulting on actuarial education through on-site seminars as well as webinars. Right from the start, the EAA saw the potential in actuvie's services and became a valued content partner.

On Monday, the EAA started its second EAA Week on actuvie with three insightful webcasts and two more videos about the CERA qualification and the upcoming Data Science & Data Ethics Conference hosted by the EAA in June

"Risk Transfer Under Solvency II for Life and Health Insurance"

Dr. Frank Schiller (Munich Re)

"Making Machine Learning Techniques Interpretable in the Context of Non-life Pricing"

Xavier Maréchal (Reacfin)

"ESG Rebase"

Michael Leitschkis (Milliman)

Find all five videos – one published each day – here on the event page.

First actuvie conference takes place in September

For the first time, the international actuarial streaming platform actuvie will be hosting its own online event in 2020 – the actuvie online conference, aoc2020.

This yearly conference will bring together stakeholders and experts from the global actuarial community to discuss the latest actuarial topics and more. The event is relevant to all actuaries worldwide and will be as easily accessible as actuvie itself.

Under the theme "future | actuary", the aoc2020 will feature a series of sessions on current developments in the actuarial profession and address future challenges for actuaries inside and outside of the financial industry in this age of digital change.

All partners and users of actuvie, as well as other interested actuaries and experts from around the world, are invited to participate and contribute to this actuvie event. A call for papers will be announced soon.

21st GCA 2020: Highlights available soon on actuvie

From 17 to 19 February 2020, the 21st Global Conference of Actuaries (21st GCA) took place in Mumbai, India. The event, organized by the Institute of Actuaries of India (IAI), is always a forum where actuaries and non-actuaries gather in a global ambience to share thoughts and debate matters that affect the financial services industry in general and the insurance and pension industry in particular. This year's theme was, "Actuaries: Striving for excellence, creating a sustainable future."

Next week the conference highlights will be published on actuvie. Check out more than a dozen videos, including:

Panel "Climate Change: Impact on Society"

Richard Holloway (Milliman), G Satish Raju (Swiss Re)

"Behavioural Data Analytics for Predicting Insurance Outcomes"

Shailesh Dhuri (Decimal Point)

Panel "Actuarial Profession: Sustaining Professional Excellence in the Context of Changing Demands"

Sumit Ramani (Actuarial Consultants), Kendra Felisky (CAS) and Frank Ashe (Australia)

"IFRS 17: Concepts and Implementation Challenges"

Dave Finnis (International Actuarial Association), Oscar Kitasoboka (Milliman), Akash Gupta (Munich Re), Sachal Gandotra (Swiss Re Asia), Mary-Helen Russell (KPMG)

"Sustainability of Term Insurance Product"

Swati Gupta (Deloitte)

Find all GCA highlights on the event page.

3 more videos from the international community

actuvew strives to offer various opportunities for the exchange of knowledge within the international community. For this, it is very encouraging that we can rely on the expertise of our partners. Just recently, another three partner institution from different countries and fields have contributed to the global dialogue with their own video presentation:

- The Actuarial Association of Europe: "The Professional Judgment Commentary Paper", Siegbert Baldauf (AAE), Xavier Gomez (AAE), Esko Kivisaari (AAE)
- The Irish Society of Actuaries: "A review of the risk margin – Solvency II and beyond", Paul Fulcher (Milliman)
- Wissenschaftliches Institut der PKV: "Zur Finanzsituation in der Sozialen Pflegeversicherung: Beitragssimulation und implizite Schuld", Christine Arentz (WIP)

You want to contribute yourself? No matter if you are an association, an educational institution or an individual expert – we are always looking forward to receive your input and insights on actuarial topics. Please find all relevant information on how to submit a video here.

EAA's Data Science & Data Ethics Conference: Early bird tickets

On 29 and 30 June 2020, the EAA will host the Data Science & Data Ethics Conference in Düsseldorf, Germany.

A few days ago, the EAA published the full conference program of 13 sessions and four keynote speakers. The agenda covers topics including data storage, unstructured data, modern statistics, use cases in predictive analytics, ActuBot and ethical questions, and much more – always with focus on the actuarial role, tasks and skills needed. Find the full schedule on the event page.

Also, the registration is open! If you want to take part in the discussion about the latest developments in data ethics and data science, exchange ideas with experts and colleagues, and make useful contacts, then register here to take advantage of the early booking offer before 29 March 2020.

Did you know there is an event section on actuvew.com?

Every month new content arrives on the actuvew platform with many videos from international conferences. You can always find all videos from a specific conference or online event centralized on its very own event page. Just go to "Videos" in the main navigation and find the tab "actuvew EVENTS". Moving over "actuvew EVENTS" with your cursor opens up a sub menu with a list of current and recent events.

And if you are looking for an event that took place during the last year, you can find an "archive"-tab at the end of the list that stores all event pages from previous years.

We hope you liked our latest actunews. If you have any comments or suggestions, please don't hesitate to write us an e-mail: contact@actuview.com. See you next month!
